

which it then radiates and circulates to all parts of your LD somewhat similar to the way in which the spiritual component of the bloodstream does in your body. From your level of consciousness, it enables you to translate and transmit combined spiritual and earthly influences into your livingness. Not only that, as a vital part of the bridge between the challenges and the goals, your birthday number also enables you to integrate past, present and future aspects of your life.

Imagine your birthday number as a filter or a funnel through which cosmic energies and forces can be radiated into and through your LD's numbers then percolated into your world. View it as a receiving station, a translation station and a transmitting station. Get to know all that it signifies as best you can and seek out its specific gifts to you as it is pivotal to your means of self expression. Therefore, both its root digit and compound number's meanings (if your birthday number happens to be a compound number) should receive your undivided attention. Make the variety of meanings of your birthday number second nature to you. See how they colour all that you think, say and do and the way that you go about your daily affairs. Also, take out its Tarot Key/s and study them. Doing this will help you to increase self-awareness.

If your birthday number is a compound number, do not forget to use its reverse number and its root number. Those born on the 28th and 29th of the month will use 28/82/10/1 and 29/92/11/2/20 as their numbers. 0 always holds a place before its single digit so those born on the 1st, 5th and 9th, for example will use 1/10, 5/50, and 9/90 for their root numbers.

The LD's BASELINE: In order to gain an understanding of the role of the LD's baseline, similarities can be drawn from it to MALKUTH, the sphere located at the bottom of the Tree of Life; each provide the footing to their structures. Malkuth represents the earth sphere; the realm allocated to the physical body and its sense impressions. It is where our physical consciousness acquires knowledge by penetrating the darkness of ignorance as a direct result of its capacity for translating mental impressions gained from direct sensory experience. From this we can gather that Malkuth symbolises the field where the basis for uncovering the esoteric nature of existence can be initiated. Malkuth's properties that relate to the body and the physical environment can be transferred to the LD's baseline to help you to see it as representing your physical contact with the earth plane. From these associations, the LDs' baseline can be seen as providing the basis from which the actual beginning of progress toward attaining spiritual heights by overcoming inertia is made here, on the physical plane; the field of sensation. Hence, both Malkuth and the LD's baseline represent a fixed field of activity where natural laws and the mechanics of the earth plane can be experienced as a platform from which subtle or inner growth has its initial beginnings.

The INNER SQUARE: Overall, the LD's numbers represent the limits of your total field of activity in this lifetime but the inner square specifically pertains to your everyday field of activity which facilitates the cultivation and manifestation of individuality, sensation and work. It represents your horizontal or personality growth as opposed to your spiritual growth that the numbers on the vertical axis and the Star of David signify. It is a direct result of combining the energies and forces of the LD's earth axis; the horizontal arm
